

I never thought it could happen here in the United States! I can't believe that Sinclair Broadcasting is able to get away with disguising propoganda saying that their right-wing agenda is "newsworthy". I respectfully request that Sinclair Broadcast Group not air the documentary Stolen Honor. I believe that it is inappropriate and unfair to air partisan propaganda the day before a national Presidential election. I believe this is the closest we have come to losing our democracy and our democratic process. Mass media influences our choices as consumers and voters. Democracy is so very fragile and we must do everything we can do to be certain that our airwaves are fair, unbiased and truly balanced. Please be certain that if this show airs that immediate and equal time will be given at all 62 affiliates. Although I am not living in a Sinclair market I am deeply concerned about this matter.

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air propoganda days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation and how we may lose our democracy and our right to vote in this country. Don't think it can't happen here. History inevitably repeats itself.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
